Girl and Baby Are Victims of Wrong Medicine—Man Tired of Life.

Screams issuing to-day from an apartment at No. 685 Gold Street, Brooklyn, attracted neighbors, who found Dorothy Anderson, fourteen, lying on the floor. She said she had been tried in mistake for cough medicine. A stomach pump saved her life.

Michael Halpin, eighteen of No. 868 Myrtle Avenue, packing clerk employed by the Waltsfelder Braid Company, No. 39 Main Street, Brooklyn, was found by a porter lying unconscious in the washroom at the factory to-day, his lips stained with iodine. Dr. Yost of Brooklyn Hospital administered an antidote. Halpin said he was tired of living. Police of Poplar Street station expressed belief a love affair was the cause.

Four-year-old Albert Rheinhardt, No. 1923 49th Street, Brooklyn, was given iodine by his mother by mistake early to-day. He was hurried to Norwegian Hospital and will recover.

CHARGES THEFT OF WATCH.

Lawyer Who Fell Asleep on Coney
Train Has Seat Mate Arrested.

John McKnight, lawyer, of No. 574 Twenty-sixth Street, Brooklyn, to-day charged George Goldfaint with stealing his watch valued at $45. McKnight said he was in a crowded Coney Island train last night when Goldfaint, sitting next to him, asked him the time. After giving the information McKnight fell asleep. When he woke up at the end of the line he said his watch had disappeared. Goldfaint denied the charge, but was held

In $1,500 bail in the Coney Island
Court.

ASKS FORFEITURE OF MARTEN'S BOND

Attorney General Wants $1,000
Surety of "Soviet Envoy"
Turned Over to State.

New York's Attorney General does not intend to return to Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, "Soviet Ambassador" to the United States, the $1,000 Liberty bond recently deposited with Sheriff David A. Knott without a stiff legal fight. Deputy Attorney General Samuel A. Berger filed an answer to-day asking that the bond be declared forfeited and that Sheriff Knott be directed to turn it over to the treasury of the State of New York.

Martens put up the bond as security after his arrest last December for contempt of court in refusing to appear before the Lusk Committee. Mr. Berger claims that Martens, whom he classed as one of the "responsible leaders of the Soviet regime," failed to keep his agreement to appear before the committee, and that therefore the bond should be forfeited.

Identified As Holdup Man, Police Say.

Harry Spencer, Nicholas Rutigliano, George Suskin and Joe Chapman, four of the men arrested Aug. 12 in an automobile holdup which was found brass knuckles, a loaded revolver and some rope, will be arraigned to-day in the Harlem Court. Spencer, the police allege, has been identified as one of five armed men who, about noon, on July 31 held up the poultry market of Samuel Gold at No. 124 East 10th Street and got away with $200 in cash and $1,500 in checks and Liberty Bonds.
